Dr. Mora clearly regrets the bad parting they had previously, and is pleased he is integrating into society. The broad duty requires only that we help others sometimes and to some extent, but it seems straightforward that, across a realistic range of commitments, more and more effective beneficent acts are better than fewer and less effective ones. Scarcely had she reached the savannah when she was seized by the Indians of the mission, who hunt human beings, like the Whites and the Negroes in Africa.
