Besides, while his descriptions of modernity or the Classical age are always limited to specific types of knowledge e. Another development during the early s is what one could call the ironic heritage film, the best example of this being Patrice Leconte's Ridicule. Such inflections of the genre worked alongside a continuation of standard, and indeed high-quality heritage, such as the seventh film version of Dumas's swashbuckler Le Bossu this time by a director more associated with s and s comedies, Philippe Le Broca.
